To J. THORNTON, ESQUIRE,

Secretary to the Government,

N. W. PROVINCES,

Dated Agra, the 13th September, 1850.

SIR,

Submits Reports with Statements and an Appendix, regarding the administration of Criminal Justice in 1842.

I am directed by the Court of Nizamut Adawlut for the North Western Provinces to submit herewith, for the consideration and orders of the Hon'ble the Lieutenant Governor, the Reports and Statements enumerated in the accompanying list, in illustration of the administration of Criminal Justice in the districts under the Court's jurisdiction during the year 1849.

2. An Appendix (A.) containing Extracts from the Reports of the Sessions Judges, and the remarks of the Court on the subjects therein noticed, is also submitted for the information of Government.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

F. B. PEARSON,

F. B. PEARSON,

Register.

APPENDIX.

Extract (paragraphs 8, 16 17, 26, 27, 36, 49, 50, 51, 66, 67, 68, 69, 70, and 71) of a letter from M. Smith, Esq., Sessions Judge in the Saugor and Nerbudda Territories, No. 41, dated 6th May 1851.

8. The distance, however, of these Territories from the seat of the Sudder Court at Agra does, in truth, constitute a formidable obstacle to the free exercise of the right of appeal now possessed under the law by all Criminals, and might seem to present sufficient warrant for relaxing the rule under which petitions of appeal are not transmittable by Dâk, but must be presented by mookhtear, in favor of the people of districts so remote as these are from the appellate tribunal. This subject was alluded to in paragraph 4 of my last Criminal Report.

16. In a particular case which arose, I informed the Joint Magistrate that I was not aware of an attempt by a beggar coming from a foreign state (Tehree) to sell his child within the limits of Saugor district, without any proof of an intention to sell it into slavery, or for purposes of traffic, or other unlawful object, being legally indictable and punishable under the existing law. If the party had imported the child for the purpose of traffic into our Territory, and there sold, or tried to sell it, as a slave, the penal provisions of Regulation III. 1832, (not altered in that respect by Act V. 1843), would doubtless apply—see Construction 955. In the present instance, the impelling motive to sell appeared to have been want; in years of famine such sales have occurred by hundreds, and the Criminal Courts could, of course, take no cognizance of the cases from their very multitude. The latitude to which transactions of this nature used to proceed in the very place I now write from, at no remote date, seems correctly set forth in Construction No. 887.

17. I hope my instruction in this instance was not opposed to the spirit of the law.

26. The Deputy Commissioner's Report alludes to the crime of cattle stealing, as apparently so prevalent in the pergunnah of Mundla. Even if the returns should exhibit the truth, there would be much excuse for the inability of the scanty local police body to cope with such an evil in the extensive uncivilized tracts composing that jurisdiction; but Major MacAdam's belief, that many of the cases reported as cattle theft are in point of fact instances of cattle straying, and loss consequent on the neglect of the owners themselves, who by such report hope to obtain the aid of the police in their recovery, still further alters the case, and leaves little to condemn except the apathy and careless unconcern of the proprietors of the herds.

27. With all these deductions, however cattle stealing in a wild country, bordering on the Nagpore frontier, is no doubt common, and practised with much impunity. The Tehseeldar suggested the utility of requiring all parties selling cattle in the district to furnish themselves with a "mark" from the police, without shewing which purchasers were to be warned not to buy; as, however, stolen cattle is probably oftener carried out of our territory for disposal beyond its limits than sold within it, such a check could only be very limited in operation, while I concurred with Major MacAdam in his estimate of two evils as likely to result from such a requirement. 1st. The hardship imposed on the people in making them come long distances to the thannah for sanction whenever they might want to sell their cattle. 2nd. The opportunities of oppression and corruption which it would give to the police, with reference to the unsophisticated character of the Gond classes.

36. In remarking on the large apparent amount of property stolen in the past year (set down as more than doubling the value reported in 1848), which is in strong contrast with the very insignificant amount recovered, the Deputy Commissioner comments on the great tendency that exists to exaggerate losses of this kind, and how little dependance can be placed in, or implicit credit given to, the estimates furnished by the sufferers. This is a fact, my own experience, in trying charges of this description, fully confirms, and, in a subsequent part of this report, will lead me to observe the bearing of such a dishonest and deceptive tendency on the working of a recently passed Act of the legislature. The instances are many in which greater or less variation is perceptible in the description and valuation of stolen articles, as originally given at the thannah and afterwards recorded in foujdaree; such difference a Magistrate will often pass by unnoticed, adopting, without question, the later, and, generally, enhanced estimate. I have taken every opportunity to observe, on these occasions, that, while such discrepancies of statement, where the stolen property is considerable, may be natural, yet efforts should always be made to reconcile and explain them in order to avert any suspicion which might arise from the professed recognition, with accused persons, of things said to have been stolen, but which perhaps were not mentioned in the original information of theft.

49. As compared with the year preceding, the statements shew an increase of crime in 1849, met by a corresponding increase in the number of persons brought to trial: the result of commitments was very successful, and though I have had sometimes to check what I thought irregularities in Mr. Best, I am bound to say that his general procedure evinces considerable tact and skill in the preparation as well as a sound comprehension of the merits of a case, and that I have every hope of his turning out a valuable officer. The appeals, as usual, were extremely few compared with the number of cases disposed of; much improvement in the acceleration of Criminal trials is visible; indeed, relatively to the extent of the district and distance of some of the thannahs, the reduced average of the past year, less than four days, would seem almost too low to be probably correct; cases however, commencing with the summons of the Magistrate, without the agency of the police, are said to have been quickened by the Deputy Commissioner "summoning "defendant and his witnesses, if he have any, at the same time, instead of summoning the defend- "ant's witnesses after his deposition has been taken," a course thought by Mr. Best to "entail "much and useless delay."

50. Of the regularity of this amendment, I am of opinion there may be considerable doubts, and I find my predecessor in Office commenting on an Order passed "that defendant should be summoned with his witnesses," as an informality that ought to be avoided, "since witnesses should be summoned by name, after designation by the defendant, and indication of the facts to which they are to depose." I agree with Mr. Brown, thinking that the contrary, though perhaps quicker, course opens a door to error and abuses.

51. I have observed on various occasions that Mr. Best is in the habit of questioning prisoners while under accusation of a criminal offence, in private, and then grounding his official procedure on what may have been elicited by, or spoken at, such private enquiry. I have great doubt as to the propriety of such a practice. I mention an instance in point, just now before me. A party cited as witness for the prosecution on a charge of "attempt at arson" denies on oath his cognizance of a fact, thought to constitute presumptive evidence of the prisoner's guilt; two days after, the same witness deposes on oath to his personal acquaintance with such fact, previously denied; there had, however, been an intermediate private interrogation by the Magistrate, who says "being "directed to remain in attendance in the Office, he (the witness) on Sunday the 10th (the day "following his first examination) informed me on my examining him in private that he had not "stated the truth, and on the following day gave evidence contradictory of the statement previously "made by him on the 9th." Here I think it is very questionable whether the Magistrate (putting aside the question of such private interrogatories being regular or desirable) could take advantage of what was so informally elicited to ground an ulterior judicial proceeding upon, unfavorable to the party interrogated. Without having any object save the furtherance of justice, such an act might wear an appearance of entrapping a man into an admission he could not know would be used against him, and is, in my opinion, open to serious objection.

66. I must take occasion to offer a few remarks on the anticipated evil working, in such a country as this, of Act XVI. 1850, "for restitution of the value of stolen property," (in passing which, ought not the provision of a prohibitory nature quoted in the margin* to have been abrogated)? which empowers Criminal Courts to add to the punishment they are competent to inflict on persons convicted of robbery, theft, knowingly receiving stolen property, and other such crimes, or of being accessary or privy thereto, "the punishment of fine not exceeding the loss appearing to be caused to the several persons who have suffered by such wrong," payable and distributable in whole or part, to or for the benefit of such sufferers.

* Clause 1, Section 39, Regulation VII. of 1803, "no pecuniary compensations nor sums, as damages, shall be adjudged to, or be recoverable by, individuals in any Criminal prosecution," &c.

67. The words I have underlined cause me alarm, when I read such remarks as Major MacAdam makes in his Report relative to the "little reliance which can be placed on the reports "made of the amount of property stolen," as exemplified in a specific case of evidently exaggerated robbery to which he is alluding, and my own experience of such a tendency to over-represent the true loss fully confirms what that Officer and Captain Skene have stated as a result of theirs.*

68. This act I presume to be based on the opinion of the writers of the Code (pages 9 and 10 of Note A), "that every person who is injured by an offence ought to be legally entitled to a "compensation for the injury." Also, "we are inclined to think that an arrangement might be "adopted under which one trial would do the work of two. We conceive that in every case in "which fine is part of the punishment of an offence, it ought to be competent to the tribunal, "which has tried the offender acting under proper checks, to award the whole or part of the fine "to the sufferer, provided that the latter signifies his willingness to receive what is so awarded "in full satisfaction of his civil claim for reparation."

69. Not venturing to call in question the wisdom of this principle, I, nevertheless, dread the effect of a too often indiscreet application of the act by an inconsiderate or inexperienced Magistrate, who, if he implicitly adopts the prosecutor's sworn estimate as the measure of loss "appearing to have been caused," and, consequently, of the mulct he is competent to impose on the offender, must often go very far wide indeed of justice, and (where the award is not inoperative owing to the poverty of the criminal) would run the risk of doing great wrong in carrying out the laudable object of awarding a legal right.

70. Will not, moreover, the very knowledge of such a law, and such a discretionary power conferred by it, increase the dishonest tendency I have noticed, or create it where it did not exist? nominally, and perhaps really, respectable people, I fear would not think themselves tied to a strict veracity in their story, where the party to be affected by it is one who has injured them, and indeed is an enemy to society. Allowing, too, there be no intentional desire to exaggerate a loss, such a result is surely not improbable in the case of rich persons who may not actually know what their personal property, or amount of cash, consisted of, or consequently, what may have been abstracted.

71. I shall watch the operation of this enactment; nor be unwilling to suggest (which might be now premature) if it should seem worthy of recommendation, that Government would see fit to direct suspension of the effect of its provisions in these territories (where the principles and spirit of the Regulations are ordinarily conformed to) as, I conceive they can do, under Section 15, Regulation VI. of 1831.

Extract (paragraphs 3, 4, 5, 6, 9, 10 and 11) of Court's reply No. 736, dated 3*rd July* 1850.

3. At present the Court do not consider that sufficient reason exists for adopting the suggestion contained in your 8th para: and relaxing the rule which disallows the transmission by Dâk to them of petitions of appeals, with respect to the Saugor territories.

4. The instruction given by you to the Joint Magistrate in the particular case of attempted child-selling, mentioned in your 16th para. is held to have been quite correct. There is a clear distinction between the case of a parent reduced by poverty to part with his child, for the sake of preserving its life and his own, and the case of any other party selling children in the way of trade. No harm can be apprehended in cases of the first sort, as the laws do not recognize such transfers, whereas interference with them might be mischievous and occasion the loss of lives that are now saved by them.

5. The Court agree with you that the suggestion of the Tehseeldar, noted in your 27th para. in the matter of the prevention of cattle stealing, would lead to much evil, without answering the end proposed.

6. The observation made in the close of your 36th para. on the importance of reconciling—as far as possible, discrepancies of statement regarding the articles and value of stolen property, is entirely approved.

9. Mr. W. R. Best's practice of summoning defendants and their witnesses at once, as stated in your paras. 49 and 50, is informal and objectionable. Your 51st para. exposes another improper and irregular practice of the same Officer, in holding private examinations of prisoners and witnesses, and grounding upon them official proceedings. Your own view of both practices is perfectly right, and it is hoped that you will not fail to impress it on Mr. Best.

10. In reply to your 66th para. I am instructed to refer you to Section 20, Regulation I. of 1803, under the provisions of which it will appear to you that Clause 1, Section 39, Regulation VII. of 1803, must be held to have been repealed by the recent Act XVI. of 1850.

11. The Court are of opinion that the operation of this new enactment will require to be watched with great care and attention by all Officers entrusted with supervisory powers: and they trust that you will favor them with your opinion upon its actual working in your next annual report; there is reason to apprehend that unless the powers conferred by the Act on Magisterial Officers be administered with much caution and discretion, the good fruit which it is calculated to produce in encouraging the prosecution of theft and in repairing the injuries caused by that crime, will be accompanied by a rank and pernicious growth of false accusations and perjuries.

F. B. PEARSON,

Register.

APPENDIX

Extract (paragraphs 25 to 33, 42 to 45, 64 and 76 to 81) of a letter from M. Smith, Esq., Sessions Judge in the Saugor and Nerbudda Territories, No. 42, dated 30th April 1851.

Para. 25. I note several instructions communicated to Lieutenant Eliott during the past year, that I may be corrected in the event of any error on my own part.

26. Regarding the award of three years' imprisonment against a female (under Regulation XII. 1818) of which one is in lieu of stripes, I advised the Magistrate of its illegality, with reference to the beginning of Clause 2, Section 2, Regulation II. 1834,* in connexion with Section 3, Act III. 1844, providing that "no female shall be subject to corporal punishment; adding, in answer to the enquiry whether, in case the two years were deemed inadequate punishment, commitment was incumbent, that the Magistrate's general discretion to commit in such case is declared by law, (Section 3, Regulation VI. 1824, and Clause 2, Section 3, Regulation XII. 1818,) always, however, specifying, in proceeding or letter, the particular reason, which makes him deem the punishment he is empowered to inflict insufficient.

"Whenever a case may come before such court in which a prisoner would be liable to corporal punishment under the existing Regulations, &c. &c."

27. Where, on conviction of two police officers of "culpable negligence and consequent loss of property," the Deputy Commissioner directed a portion of the fine imposed to be paid to the sufferer as compensation for loss under Act XVI. 1850, I referred that officer to the title of the Act named, "for restitution of the value of stolen property," and pointed out its inapplicability to the circumstances of such a case, for though Section 1 includes convictions of all sorts of "wrongful appropriations of property," still that is very different from the instance of loss happening, contingent on blameable neglect. In the one kind of case, the "malus animus," or felonious or fraudulent intention exists, while, in the other, we assume no injurious design, and loss following on neglect is not "misappropriation."

28. I doubted the correctness of the Magistrate's procedure in himself disposing by acquittal, without reference for the orders of my Court, of a charge of murder, in which he found the act to have been committed by a party incapable, from unsound mind, of knowing, at the time, that she was doing an act forbidden by the law. With reference to the terms of Section 1, Act IV. 1849, and Circular Order of Nizamut Adawlut, dated 7th, and published in the Agra Gazette of the 18th September of the same year, I did not consider the power of final acquittal for an act found to have been committed which, but for unsoundness of mind, would be murder, to be vested in the Magistrate's Court. But I am not quite sure that I am right.

29. In a prosecution for perjury, I thought it a pity that there is now no rule under which a Magistrate can summarily punish a prevaricating deponent. The variation of statement on oath of which the party was doubtless guilty had much more of the character of prevarication than of wilful false-swearing. I did not think the Magistrate called on to reswear prosecutor, and interrogate him afresh, upon the mere challenge of a defendant to swear by "Parusnath" to the assault imputed; such a course is unusual, but, if adopted, I said that, in fairness to the deponent, his first examination of 21 days before should have been previously read over to him, to refresh his memory, or the question so shaped as to shew what he had before deposed to; cross-examination, after such an interval, might produce self-contradiction in even a veracious deponent.

30. Upon a question of the Deputy Commissioner, I did not think he possessed authority under the law, without any private party prosecuting or complaining, and without any act of violence or other misdemeanor imputed, to interfere merely of his own motion to prevent the transfer by a mother of her illegitimate child, not arrived at years of discretion, for the purpose of being hereafter made a prostitute, even though the girl be of age so immature as to be incapable of giving a legal consent or dissent. The wording of Regulation VII. 1819 may, indeed, be interpreted to declare the object of making an unmarried female minor a prostitute or concubine, to be an unlawful object, and an intended disposal of such minor in an unlawful manner. That Law, however, contemplates abduction for the above purpose, without consent of the parent or guardian.

31. Observing cases in the Deputy Commissioner's Criminal Statement for June 1850 " disobedience of orders in not reporting the circumstance of having melted down golden ornaments," I called for copy of such order, and remarked that the enforcement of a penalty for failing to report to the police transactions of private sale and transfer of property had been interdicted (Construction 747) and that the question of melting down ornaments did not seem to fall under a different rule.

32. I found Lieutenant Eliott had issued a prohibitory penal order against sonars melting ornaments without reporting the fact. This he afterwards withdrew. I informed him that upon Captain Spence in 1844, recording a roobakaree of this nature, the former Sessions Judge, Mr. Caldecott, " saw no objection to the people being cautioned as to the melting down of metals without making it known to the police, or headmen of the village," but he properly remarked on the fact of such restrictive and prohibitory rules having been found intolerable in practice, that is, their inconvenience to have so much preponderated over the benefits resulting from their operation as to have caused a very quick abrogation of the law, by which they were made current.*

33. Paragraph 59 of my Criminal Report for 1848, touched on the " practice (in these Territories) of compelling registration of private transfer of property, sold and bought, how far it exists, and in what degree it should be tolerated," the Court approved of the instruction I issued, in their Register's letter No. 543, dated 27th June 1849.

42. I found it necessary to animadvert on, with a view to checking, long, tedious, and irrelevant enquiries entered into by the police (tehseeldars and others) of Mundla. The points objected to were indiscriminate investigation in much detail, of things material and immaterial, undue protraction of examinations and detention of witnesses, with enquiry into the good character (khooshmashee) of accused parties, though nothing tangible might be established against them. I also interdicted a habit of making long, spontaneous, inquisitions into charges (often prompted by malice) referring to alleged acts of long ago. As when a man says that another caused the death of his son 1½ years since. Such complaints, I directed, should be referred, in the first instance, to the Joint Magistrate (Moonsiff) of Mundla, or the Deputy Commissioner for proper orders.

43. In regard to an award of maintenance by Mr. Glover, under Section 4, Regulation VII. 1819, I suggested his cautious exercise of the discretion given by the law as to the support of the mothers of illegitimate children, and that he should limit Magisterial interference to the period of pregnancy, and the infancy of the child, according to the letter of the Regulation, and refuse to interpose his authority on any subsequent application.

44. The case I commented on was one of a highly disgraceful kind, viz., illicit intercourse on the part of the complainant with her deceased husband's brother, and, unless in a question of extreme destitution, the expediency of any interference seems to me here doubtful. It is too much like helping a party to benefit by his own wrong.

45. As to the period (18 months) for which the maintenance was ordered to be continued, I observed that neither the law, nor Construction thereon (No. 992,) specifies that the engagement to give support, requirable from the party complained against, is to contain any particular time for which the maintenance is to continue, nor was I aware of its being usual to include such specification of period in the mochulka. But as, on the other hand, there was no prohibition of the practice, I did not feel at liberty to restrain the Magistrate's discretion in that particular.

64. In connexion with a very shocking case brought before the Court in my letter of reference dated 2nd January last, No. 5, (Gungoo, koormee, murder by poison) and in reference to numerous instances which the Criminal records of the past few years shew of imputed murder, or attempt thereat, by means of poison, conviction following prosecution in some, but acquittal, from defect of proof, in others, I brought lately to the Commissioner's notice the great apparent facilities possessed by the public for obtaining mineral poisons, in order that some restrictive measures might possibly be devised more effectual than the nominal prohibition now, I believe, in force against the sale by druggists of arsenic without communication to the police, a rule which the fact of poison being so accessible to any who have revenge to gratify, shews must be easily evaded. It is, at the same time, true that the question is difficult; the restriction of the vending and purchase of poisonous substances being yet unprovided for in the law of our own country, where civilization has so much more advanced.*

76. A considerable increase in the number of security prisoners will be observed. In answer to the enquiry of an officer regarding the option he possessed of rejecting tendered security for good conduct in cases of a deposit of money being found to have been made by the party called on for bail, I observed that the practice, which is doubtless common, of persons (perhaps of indifferent repute themselves) undertaking for a pecuniary compensation to be responsible for bad characters over whom they have no influence, in the assurance that, if the latter break their engagement, and the penalty be enforced, the former will be secured from loss, has been denounced as to be "discouraged," in a Circular Order of the Nizamut Adawlut, and is certainly not within the sanction of the law.

77. As the Regulation† contemplates "respectable individuals" becoming sureties for bad characters, and the form of demand for security always specifies that the sureties must be of this sort (matubur our nék-utwar) I conceived a Magistrate was fully justified in extending his enquiry to that qualification of a security, besides the fact of his pecuniary ability to make good the penalty in case of the forfeiture of the bond. But so wide a discretion seems to be left by the law in a Magistrate's hands, that I do not think any general rule is capable of being laid down and adopted in the question of the acceptance or rejection of particular offers of security.

78. But if, in some instances, men not much better than the parties whose good conduct they profess to guarantee, are admitted as sureties, and "quis custodiet custodes" becomes the embarrassing question with the Magistrate, I have long been of opinion that the operation of Regulation VIII. of 1818, is all the other way, and that, in spite of the precautionary and restrictive rules from time to time laid down,‡ a latitude is left in a Magistrate's hands by which great oppression may be inflicted, without any tangible infraction of the law on his part. In the first place, the circumstantial proof thought to constitute a man a bad character is so highly indefinite a thing according to the various views of individual officers I have found demand for security made solely on strong suspicion of the commission* of a particular, unproven offence, or because of prior convictions alone, or in the absence of evidence of recent dishonest livelihood. And in the second place, there is so arbitrary a power exercisable regarding the non-acceptance of security tendered in obedience to the demand.

* A Bill is before Parliament now on the subject.

* Contrary to Clause 1, Section 2, of the above Regulation.

79. In point of fact, the practical working of the Regulation, when not closely checked by a system of ready and near appellate control, appears to me scarcely different from that which would attend a late proposal made by the Recorder of Birmingham, Mr. Hill, deprecated by the Times in some remarks which I have cited in Appendix C. for the perusal of the Court.† In his speech, Mr. Hill said, "It is notorious to all the world, that a numerous class exists among us individually known to the officers of justice as persons who follow crime as a calling, and who have no other means of subsistence than the remuneration which belongs to their nefarious course of life." He proposes that all such persons, when they are found to resort to particular places favorable to the pursuit of their operations, should be apprehended when they can shew no means of honest subsistence, and that they should be imprisoned, sent out of the country, or made to find security for their good conduct. An old law, which might be improved, he says, "still exists whereby this could be done, and which would enable the ministers of justice to withdraw nine-tenths of the criminals, who now roam at large, making no secret of their contempt for justice and its guardians; braving the opprobrium of their calling, and only refraining from the most appalling violence, when they can secure their plunder without its aid."

† The following sketch is taken from the United Service Magazie for February 1851, Paper on "the Increase of Crime."

80. The Times opposes this proposition to apprehend and try reputed thieves, on the ground of the injurious consequences likely to result from such an encroachment on the liberty of the subject, entailing a greater evil than would be counterbalanced by any benefit derivable from its adoption. I am disposed to agree in this view as applicable to frequent instances of incarceration of suspected bad characters, in this country. It has been more than once my duty to point out to officers here the unavoidableness of evil agents occasionally remaining at large, and capable of prosecuting wicked and lawless courses. Such, I have remarked, is the case everywhere, even in our own country, possessing probably the most perfect system of police and criminal administration in the world; we must do all we legally can to defeat and counteract their injurious projects, so as we exceed not the laws we sit to administer. The Regulations bearing on demand of security for good conduct have a wide latitude given them as it is; but I have felt they may be converted into a weapon of oppression, and that in respect to the evil to society from such persons being at large, the advantage was more, on the one hand, of the people feeling satisfied that the consistency and stability of fixed laws will be maintained, and no uncertain rules of expediency, unlicenced by them, be permitted, in the punishment of offences, than the occasional evil, on the other, of finding that there are shapes and aspects of iniquity, which the fingers of the law cannot manage to grasp.

81. Regarding any remedial measure, either by modifying the law, and restraining its latitude, or by devising further curbs on the administration of its provisions by Magistrates, I am not yet prepared to offer a suggestion, but I should be glad if the subject were discussed with a view to the cure of an evil, which I believe to be real.

Extract (paragraphs 5, 6, 7, 11 and 14,) of Court's reply No. 601, dated 12*th July,* 1851.

Para. 5. The instructions given by you to Lieutenant Eliott, Deputy Commissioner of Dumoh, as detailed in your paragraphs 25 to 30 inclusive, are considered by the Court to have been perfectly correct. As regards the subject of your 28th paragraph, it is observed that rules for the guidance of the Magistrates, in conducting inquiries in the case of persons supposed to be insane, are to be found in Circular Order No. 307, dated 11th February 1825.

6. The Court have perused your letters on the subject of paragraphs 31 to 33, of your letter under acknowledgment. They remark that the law does not recognize the act of melting down ornaments without giving information to the police as an offence, or provide for its punishment; and, this being the case, it is useless and improper to interdict acts that are not illegal by a threat of penalties which cannot legally be inflicted. The 12th, 13th and following Sections of Regulation I. of 1811, to which Lieutenant Ternan has adverted, were never in force in the North Western Provinces, and were found to be attended with so much inconvenience in the Lower Provinces, that they were rescinded by Regulation XXI. of 1812.

7. The Court approve of the instructions which you gave to Mr. Glover, on the points mentioned in your paragraphs 42 to 45 inclusive; but they think that orders passed under Sections 3 and 4, Regulation VII. of 1819, should not limit the period for which the maintenance required is to continue.

11. The Court are not inclined to think that any restrictions could be judiciously or usefully applied to the sale of poisons by druggists. Such measures would probably have the effect of deterring druggists from giving their evidence in cases where it might lead to the detection or conviction of poisoners, rather than of materially checking the crime of murder by poison. Moreover, vegetable poisons, which are believed to be mostly used in the Saugor and Nerbudda Territories, for criminal purposes, can generally be procured without recourse to druggists. These remarks have reference to your 64th paragraph.

14. There is no doubt that the powers of Magistrates to demand and to reject security are capable of abuse; there would also be danger, the Court conceive, in fettering their discretion in a particular which is so closely connected with the efficiency of the police. The Court do not allow that the proof of bad livelihood is necessarily indefinite. The testimony of the headmen of the Village or Muhallah, and of the neighbours, which is of the nature of positive evidence, concerning the character and habits of one of their body, is not generally to be distrusted; since there is not likely to be error, where there is no reason to suspect malice, in it; and, moreover, Section 10, Regulation XXXV. of 1803, throws the onus probandi upon the suspected person, who should be called upon to prove an honest business, and lawful means of subsistence.

F. B. PEARSON,

Register.

APPENDIX.

Extract Paragraph 13, of a letter No. 67, dated 17*th May* 1852, from the Sessions Judge of Furruckabad, on the Administration of Criminal Justice for 1851.

Paragraph 13th. In paragraph 16 of his letter, the Magistrate finds fault with my confirming an order of the Deputy Magistrate, directing the Collector to attach some land in a suit under Section 4, Act IV. of 1840. The Magistrate considers that the complaint should have been dismissed, and the plaintiff should have been left to seek his remedy in the Civil Court. But the Magistrate has not stated the whole case. It is true, the plaintiff did not prove his previous possession, neither was the defendant's possession proved. In fact, the Deputy Magistrate was unable to determine in whose possession the land had been. Under such circumstances, the case fell under Section 2 of the Act, and if the Deputy Magistrate apprehended a breach of the peace, he was at liberty in my opinion to direct the attachment of the land.

Extract Paragraph 16, of a letter No. 26, dated the 30*th April* 1852, from the Magistrate, to the Sessions Judge of Furruckabad.

16. In the case, noted in the margin* in which the plaintiff complained of dispossession under Section 4, Act IV. of 1840, Mirza Kulle Hoseïn Khan, Deputy Magistrate, not being able to determine in whose possession it had been, directed the Collector to attach the disputed land. The case was appealed to you, and you confirmed the Deputy Magistrate's order. It seems to me that the Criminal Authorities can direct the Collector to attach lands, only in cases arising under Section 2 of Act IV. of 1840; and that in other cases if the plaintiff fail to prove his previous possession, the proper mode is to dismiss his complaint according to Section 4, leaving him to seek his remedy in the Civil Court.

* Mandhata versus Punchum

Extract from Paragraph 4 of Court's reply, No. 807, dated the 2*nd August* 1852.

In paragraph 13 of your own, and paragraph 16 of the Magistrate's letter, the Court observe, that if the plaintiff did not prove his previous possession, his claim to be reinstated under Section 4 of the Act should have been dismissed; the Deputy Magistrate could only attach the land under the 3rd Section, after proceeding in the manner described in the 2nd Section. The case instituted under Section 2, would be quite distinct from the one instituted under Section 4; the latter could not be disposed of by an order under Section 3.

Extract Paragraph 3 of Court's letter, No. 549, dated the 9th June 1852, to the Sessions Judge of Jounpore, on the Administration of Criminal Justice for 1851.

Paragraph 3rd. The Court notice with reference to the list of persons employed as assessors, &c., under Regulation VI. of 1832, that several individuals were employed on more than one trial. Such an arrangement is objectionable on two grounds; either the duty falls hard on those repeatedly employed; or it may be apprehended, that some of them have an interested motive in rendering the service. So frequent an employment of vakeels, who are accustomed to appear as the advocates of suitors, in the capacity of assessors, &c., as your statement indicates, is also in the Court's opinion obviously undesirable. The statement, moreover, is erroneously drawn out. It is not intended that the names of the assessors, &c., should be entered more than once. Column 5 should show the number of cases in which any one person has officiated during the year. There is no connection between the first five and three last columns. Columns 6, 7 and 8 should only have one entry each, viz., a general one, showing the aggregate number of cases tried under the provisions of Section 3, Regulation VI. of 1832, and the results of the whole. With advertence to the foregoing observations, you are requested to submit an amended Statement No. 13.

Extract Paragraph 4 from a report from the Officiating Magistrate of Allahabad, No. 2, dated 21st January 1852 on the Administration of Criminal Justice, during the year 1851.

4. The "character of Officers" heretofore furnished to you, appears to belong rather to my Police Administration Report. The figured Tabular Statements now submitted will enable you to draw the attention of the Sudder Nizamut to the various inferences deducible from them. The general result will I trust be considered favorable.

Extract Paragraph 6 from a letter from the Register, Nizamut Adawlut, North Western Provinces, No. 583, dated 16th June 1852.

6th. With advertence to the 4th paragraph of the Magistrate's report, I am desired to observe that that Officer is obviously in error in supposing that the character of the Officers subordinate to him belongs rather to his report on the Police of his district than to that on the Administration of Criminal Justice; it is in the latter department, the general control and superintendence of which are vested in the Court, that the proceedings of the Magisterial Officers are brought under the review of the Court, and the mode in which they conduct their duties as Criminal Judges, irrespective of any duties that may devolve upon them as Officers of Police, must necessarily constitute a fitting and proper subject for remark in the Annual Reports submitted to the Court on the Administration of Criminal Justice, and should never be omitted therein. This principle is distinctly recognized in paragraph 7th of the Circular Orders of the 4th November 1842, to which you are requested to draw the attention of the Officiating Magistrate, and to enjoin a strict conformity to the rule therein laid down for the future.

Extract Paragraphs 4 and 5 from a report from the Sessions Judge of Ghazeepore, No. 32, dated 27*th February* 1852, on the Administration of Criminal Justice, for the year 1851.

4th. It is the custom in this district on the occurrence of a crime, to issue an order to the thannadar to apprehend all the bad characters of the neighbourhood, and to send them in with the proofs of their bad livelihood. An order in such general terms, conferring such power on the police is tantamount to giving them a general license to plunder and oppress. Accordingly, on its receipt the thannadar summons parties from all sides, and after a loose enquiry in which little regard is paid to the provisions of Regulation XX. of 1817, sends in a number of persons to the Magistrate as bad characters. Hundreds of persons are avowedly summoned on such occasion, the thannadar seeming to think, that the more he summons, the greater his zeal will be manifested. The Magisterial Authorities are equally regardless of the proofs of bad livelihood required by the law above quoted, the general epithet of "budmash" applied by the witnesses without any attempt to illustrate it, is considered sufficient proof, and all deficiencies in this respect, are got over by the argument, that if they are honest, they will have no difficulty in furnishing the required security.

5th. It is another bad consequence of such orders, that the crime which gives rise to them is totally lost sight of, and forgotten in these secondary measures. No further effort is made to trace it out, the punishment of the budmashes of the neighbourhood appearing to content both the Police and Magistrate.

Extract Paragraphs 2 and 3 from Court's reply, No. 214, dated 13*th March* 1852.

2. As regards the cases of contempt, and of maltreatment to which you have referred, the Court observe that you should report to them, under Section 5, Act XXXI. of 1841, any in which their interference may appear to be required, with advertence to the Circular Order, No. 106, dated 18th March 1842.

3. You are requested to submit a return of the cases of the persons required by the Magisterial Authorities to find security for character, showing the names of the parties, the dates of their apprehension, the nature of the charge on which they were in the first instance apprehended, the final orders passed respecting them, and the name of the officer by whom the proceedings were held.

Extract Paragraph 2 from Court's letter, No. 451, dated 14*th May* 1852, addressed to the Sessions Judge of Ghazeepore.

2. As regards the persons who are shown in the detail Statement now furnished to have been ordered to file security for good conduct by the Magisterial Authorities during the past year, the Court request that in all cases in which any of the parties may now be under confinement in default of security, you will call for, and examine the proceedings of the Foujdaree Court, and make a reference to the Nizamut Adawlut in those instances in which such irregularity may be apparent as to render their interference under Section 5, Act XXXI. of 1841, proper and expedient. The Court further desire that you will in future carefully supervise the proceedings of the Magisterial Officers in cases of this description as they are brought to your notice in the Magistrate's Monthly Statements, with a view to check the irregular and oppressive practice which seems to have obtained in the disposal of them, and that you will call the attention of that Officer particularly to the terms of Clause 1, Section 2, Regulation VIII. of 1818, the Circular Order, dated 29th March 1822, No. 250, and Construction No. 1195.

Extract Paragraphs 3, 4, 6, 7, 10 and 23, of a letter from the Register of the Nizamut Adawlut, North Western Provinces, dated 2nd September 1852, No. 984, on the Administration of Criminal Justice in the Bareilly District, during the year 1851.

3rd. In noticing the proportion of acquittals to convictions in this district, which, they observe, was reduced in some degree in the past year, the Court, reverting to what was urged on this head in the Magistrate's Report for the year 1850, deem it proper to remark that the individuals who suffer the evils of hasty and unfounded prosecutions are the parties whose interests are primarily to be considered, and that the ends of the Criminal Administration are better answered by certainty of result, than by the number of apprehensions. The Court do not aim at any close uniformity in the returns of the several districts in this respect; but they are anxious that the Magisterial Authorities should recognise the principle that the objects of their administration will not be forwarded by the arraignment of persons on imperfect grounds or mere suspicion.

4th. The Court take the opportunity of adverting to the remarks on the prevalence of perjury in the same letter in which a broad distinction was said to be drawn by the people between a falsehood uttered in Court, and a falsehood uttered out of Court. The Court observe, generally, that if a more scrupulous attention were paid by the Officers presiding in the Courts of justice to the due administration of the declaration, and to the examination of witnesses in person at the proper time and place, much of the disregard of truth now exhibited by them might with reason be expected to disappear. An instance of great irregularity in this respect in the Magistrate's Office was brought to the notice of the Court in the course of a trial* during the last year.

6th. One of the most remarkable features of the Bareilly administration, is the paucity of cases in which parties have had recourse to the Foujdaree Court for relief in cases of dispossession under Section 4 of Act IV. of 1840, or in which the Magisterial authorities have found it necessary to apply the provisions of Section 2 of the same enactment for the prevention of affrays. The Court are led to infer, that many cases which would properly have been taken up and decided under Section 4 of the Act, have been disposed of as cases of trespass, or entered under other headings in the return of miscellaneous offences; but they do not now dwell further on the point, as a general enquiry into the working of this law is in progress.

7th. The Court request that you will call upon the Magistrate to explain the cause of the Act XVI. of 1850, having been virtually inoperative in his district during the year 1851; pointing out to him at the same time the duty of public Officers to allow a just scope to the operation of a law which has been deemed necessary by the legislature; and informing him that the observations of the Court on this subject, which appeared in their printed Report on the Administration of Criminal Justice for the year 1849, were directed against an incautious and indiscriminate use of the powers which the enactment confers, and were not meant to countenance the neglect of an instrument, which, if judiciously employed, may be effective for the ends designed.

10th. The Court's attention has again been attracted by the large number of chowkeedars (500 in all) called to account for neglect of duty: and they observe that the Magistrate's explanation of the practice adopted by him, does not show why it is pursued in his district to a greater extent, than in the other districts of the North Western Provinces. Without desiring to fetter the discretion of the local authorities, the Court are disposed to doubt the expediency of putting on their defence, on this charge, so large a number of the inferior class of public servants. The practice is one, which, Officers young in the service and inexperience are prone to carry beyond the exigencies of the occasion, and the control of the Magistrate is especially required in restraining it within proper bounds.

* Case of Pundit Hurnath and others.

23rd. In their resolution under date the 23rd June 1851, the Court noted the observations contained in paragraphs 15 and 16 of Mr. Robertson's Report for the year 1850, and cited in the margin,* and intimated that without positive proof they were unwilling to believe that any Judicial Officer could be guilty of the perversions of justice implied in the practices supposed by the Additional Judge to obtain. The Court advert to the subject again, because, though Mr. Robertson absolved the Officers in charge of the districts in Rohilcund from the imputation, he appears, at the same time, to apprehend that the remarks of the Court on the Annual Statements have a tendency to produce a result like that which he deprecates. The Court depend upon the honor of the district Officers for the integrity of the Statements, and the undisguised representation in them of all the details and results of criminal proceedings; but they do not form their opinion of the individual Officers from these returns alone, nor are any particular features displayed in them made the sole ground of judging of the efficiency of the administration. The sentiments of the Court as regards the danger of laying too much stress on any single points have been set forth in the Circular Order, No. 79, dated 23rd January 1841, and the value and use of the periodical returns for the general purposes of check and control, with a view to regularity and uniformity of procedure, are pointed out in paragraphs 2, 3 and 4 of the Circular Order, No. 98, dated 4th November 1842. The points which the Statements bring prominently under view are those which marked a sound Criminal Administration before the introduction of the Statements. It is always in the power of the Magistrates to submit with their returns any explanations which they may desire to offer in elucidation of them, or of their administration, and the Court are happy to recognize and record any such tokens of an interest being felt by them in their responsible duties.

* 15. Once talking in private on the subject with an Officer possessing Criminal Jurisdiction, he frankly avowed to me, and while I was declaiming against the injustice of the procedure, that he was in the habit of convicting persons whom he would otherwise have acquitted, but from a fear of his "naqshahs being spoilt" by the large number of acquittals. I shall be excused indicating the person I refer to, his communication being to me altogether private and unofficial, but I may state that he bears a good reputation and that he never was under my jurisdiction.

16. I cannot refer positively to any other specific instance of the kind, but I am under the impression that it is not an uncommon practice with Criminal Officers, (not however existing to my knowledge in any of these districts) instead of acquitting and discharging a prisoner against whom they deem the evidence defective, to convict and fine him some trifling sum, such as a rupee or half a rupee.

Extract Paragraphs 11 to 16 of a letter, No. 74, dated the 31*st May* 1852, from M. Smith, Esq., Sessions Judge of Saugor and Nerbudda Territories, for the Ceded Districts for 1851.

11th paragraph. The Joint Magistrate, (Capt. Carter), interrupted the police enquiry into a charge of rape from an impression that it was irregular. I stated that a charge of rape is cognizable by a police officer (thanadar or jumadar) not being excepted from his cognizance by Regulation XX. of 1817, and that such a complaint may also be referred to a Darogah for investigation, (Construction 1174.) I also advised the exercise of due discrimination between bonâ fide cases of violence, and instances of adultery by consent, or of deflowering without violence, where it is very common for the detected party to bring a charge of rape in order to cover her own disgrace, and obtain restoration to caste.

12th. I had to correct the rather strange misapprehension of the Joint Magistrate in the instance which follows:—The fact of a cattle-theft was established by the testimony of prosecutor, who identified his stolen bullock in possession of A, who got it from B, who bought it from C, into whose hands it would appear to have come from the original thief D, who acknowledged the theft.

13th. The Joint Magistrate did not think he had jurisdiction over A and B—he punished C for guilty possession of stolen goods, but discharged D, (the admitted thief) because he "had no proof of his committing the theft beyond his own confession."

14th. This was explained by a reference to Skipwith's Guide, citing a precedent, Nizamut Adawlut reports, that a "prisoner cannot be convicted of an offence solely on his own confession, but evidence must be taken to the actual commission of the crime with which he is charged."

15th. I however pointed out that the precedent itself, and the Law* it referred to, would have made it clear that what is meant is, that the FACT of an offence having been committed must be established in proof, before a confession to it can be held valid, not that evidence is indispensible, to the party confessing having committed the offence. For instance, if a person came and recorded a confession that five years ago he committed a murder, it is requisite to find out that a murder really occurred at the time and place stated, or that some one was missing; thus I find another precedent in point where "the prisoner's confession to a murder alleged to have been committed many years before his apprehension, in the absence of any other proof that the murder was actually committed, was held to be insufficient for conviction" (November 1838).

* Reg. IX. of 1793, Section 6.

16th. The absence of Regulations to verify the references has, in several instances within my notice, diminished the usefulness of the "Magistrate's Guide."

Extract Paragraph 3, of Court's reply, Register's letter, dated Agra, the 24*th August* 1852, No. 901, to the Sessions Judge of Saugor and Nerbudda Territories.

3rd. paragraph. The instructions given by you to the Joint Magistrate of Chundeyree, as detailed in paragraphs 11 to 16, (inclusive), of your letter, are approved by the Court.

Extract Paragraph 21, of a letter from M. Smith, Esq., Sessions Judge in the Saugor and Nerbudda Territories, No. 65, dated 10*th May* 1852, on the Administration of Criminal Justice for the year 1851.

21st. In reply to a query of Lieut. Montgomery, I stated that Darogahs of police, and (under Clauses 2nd and 3rd, Section 4, Regulation XX. of 1817), the Mohurir and Jumadar, under certain circumstances, being empowered and required by the Regulations* to examine parties complaining, in cases declared to be cognizable by such Police Officers, on oath, and Clause 3rd, Section 23, Regulation XX. of 1817, providing how they shall act when such complaints appear, on enquiry, to be false and malicious, it follows that parties deposing falsely on oath, thus legally administered, must be indictable for perjury; it being added, that Police Officers were prohibited from swearing witnesses to the truth of their depositions, by Clause 4th, Section 13, of the same Regulation. Two precedents were cited for this, of which, the first is sufficient to be mentioned. Haro Mochee. Convicted of perjury, in making a false statement at the thanah on oath. Imprisonment for 3 years. A. Ross and C. F. Sealy, Judges, 19th December 1831.

* Regulation XX. of 1817, Sec. 13, Cl. 1st; Sec. 24, Cl. 1st; Sec. 25, Cl. 1st.

Extract Paragraph 6, of Court's reply, No. 868, dated 12*th August* 1852.

6. The Court approve of the instruction given by you to Lieut. Montgomery, regarding the liability of parties to the penalties of perjury, for false complaints made on oath before Police Officers.

Extract from Paragraph 11, of Court's (Register, Nizamut Adawlut,) letter No. 900, dated the 23*rd August* 1852, to the Sessions Judge of Seharunpore, on the Administration of Criminal Justice for 1851.

With advertence to paragraph 2nd of Mr. Swinton's letter to your address, the Court request that you will inform the Magistrate of Mozuffernugger that original jurisdiction cannot legally be delegated by him to any of his subordinates not vested with the full powers of a Magistrate: and that the Deputy Magistrate without special powers stationed at Shamlee in charge of five thannahs is, therefore, not competent to enter upon the investigation of any case which has not been specifically referred to him by his superior.

Extract, Paragraph 27, of a letter from J. P. Gubbins, Esquire, Sessions Judge of Delhie, No. 18, dated 4*th March* 1852, on the Administration of Criminal Justice for 1851.

27th. The result of the Criminal Administration in this district is not so satisfactory as I could wish, and in one or two committals I saw reason for doubting the goodness of Mr. Prowett's judgment. I, however, append copy of his own remarks on this subject, merely remarking as regards cases tried under Act IV. of 1840, that the statement of the prosecutor only was directed by me to be recorded on oath, a measure which I still consider absolutely necessary.

Extract, Paragraph 5, of a letter from N. H. E. Prowett, Esq., Magistrate of Paneeput, No. 6, dated 27*th January* 1852.

5th. It has been represented to me by the Deputy Magistrate, that you have lately objected to the manner in which he investigated the cases under Regulation IV. of 1840, his plan being to require statements in writing from the parties, and take evidence adduced by them, but it seems you require that the depositions on oath of contesting parties should be taken. This practice the Deputy Magistrate, has not been accustomed to, and considers it not enjoined by the Regulation: I think he is right in the latter point.

Extract Paragraph 2, of Court's reply, (Register's letter, No. 281, dated 3*rd April* 1852.)

2nd. With reference to paragraph 5 of the latter communication, to which allusion is made in the concluding part of paragraph 27 of Mr. J. P. Gubbins' letter, the Court desire me to inform you, that in cases instituted under Section 4, Act IV. of 1840, the deposition of the prosecutor should not be taken upon oath, as his complaint is not of a criminal, but of a civil nature. In cases arising under Section 2 of the same enactment, you will observe, the Magistrate is required to call on the parties for a written statement of their respective claims.

LIST OF STATEMENTS.

No. 1.—Abstract Statement showing the number of persons brought to trial, acquitted and convicted in the year 1851, by the Magistrates, Joint Magistrates, and Assistants, and by the Principal Sudder Ameens and Sudder Ameens in the North Western Provinces, and the number committed to take their trial at the Sessions.

APPENDIX A.

Extracts from Court's Resolution recorded on the Administration of Criminal Justice for Zillah Futtehpoor, for the year 1853.

A reference was, quite recently, made to the Government by the Court regarding a practice viewed by them as exceptionable, in this District, of Police Officers proceeding into a Foreign Territory, as of course, and on their own motion, without specific authority in each instance, in pursuit, and with a view to the arrest, of criminal offenders of that jurisdiction.

Act XVI. 1850 may be said to be inoperative. When called upon last year to explain its non-enforcement, the Magistrate strangely stated that the Criminal Authorities did not feel themselves bound to apply the provisions of the law of their own motion, without solicitation of the injured party, which is never made. The Magistrate was advised that he had quite misapprehended the intention of the enactment, which was to give Magistrates the discretionary power of according redress and indemnification to injured parties, irrespectively of any application from the latter; and that it was a Magistrate's duty to watch occasions of applying a law designed to be judiciously enforced.

Court's Letter to Government, No. 1009, dated 14*th August* 1854.

Extract of remarks of Sessions Judge, Futtehpoor, on case of Doorgwa and three others, knowingly receiving property obtained by dacoitee, (decided May 1854.)
Copy of letter from Sessions Judge dated 14th July 1854, with annexure from the Magistrate.

I am directed to request that you will submit, for the consideration of the Honorable the Lieutenant-Governor, with a view to the issue of any orders that may appear to be called for, the annexed extract, and transcripts of letters, according to the marginal detail, relative to a procedure regarded by the Court as open to exception, on the part of the Police of the Futtehpoor District.

2nd.—The practice, which the Court would bring to the notice of the Government, is one, described as one "of course" in the District above-named, of the Police agents proceeding without any special authority from the Magistrate, of their own motion into the Foreign Territory of Oude, and arresting suspected persons found therein without the co-operation, or cognizance of the Police of that country.

3rd.—Although this may be a political question, beyond the direct province of the Court, they cannot but feel that a licence of this sort is open to serious objection, attended, as it has been in the present case, with loss of life on both sides, and involving the liability of reprisals on our own Frontier by the officials of the foreign jurisdiction.

4th.—The Court do not, of course, comprehend in this remark the instance of such a procedure taken in authorized co-operation with the constituted agency of the Foreign State, such as exists in the Oude Frontier Police Force. They only now allude to the circumstance, illustrated by the papers sent, of a Police Officer going of his own authority into the Foreign Territory, with an armed force, and thus provoking collision and bloodshed.

5th.—The Thannahdar, who only acted according to his sense of duty, may be deserving of commendation and reward for the good service done, and gallantry displayed by him in this undertaking. The Sessions Judge made a reference to the Court in general terms on this point, before they had cognizance of the particular case, and was directed to Regulation XVI. 1810, Section 18, in the event of any trial being pending before him, involving the question, or to Section 15, Regulation XVII. 1816, in a different event.

6th.—The Court would add that the general subject of pursuing subjects of a Foreign Territory (accused of crimes committed in ours) beyond the British Frontier, and arresting them there, without the co-operation of the authorities of the Foreign State, came under full consideration in connexion with a series of trials from the Baitool District, (Saugor Territories,) Kondiya and others, reported in the Nizamut Adawlut printed Decisions for August 1852, pages 898 to 935.

Secretary's Reply to Court's Letter No. 1595 A., dated 30*th August* 1854.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, dated 14th instant, No. 1009, bringing to notice an objectionable practice on the part of the Police of the Futtehpoor District, in respect to the pursuit of criminals into the Territory of Oude.

2nd.—In reply, I am desired to state that the Lieutenant-Governor entirely concurs in the opinion expressed by the Court. The particular case, out of which the reference has arisen, has been already brought under the notice of the Government, and a correspondence on the general question, is now in progress with the Resident of Lucknow.

Extracts from Court's Resolutions, recorded on the Administration of Criminal Justice, for the year 1853.

Goruckpoor.—Paragraph 5.—Act XVI. 1850 was, as before, inoperative. It was stated by the Court, by an instruction given in the past year, that the Magisterial Authorities were in error in assuming the determination, beforehand, of the indigence of parties convicted by them, as a reason for not giving effect to the provisions of that law, since the legitimate test of their possession or otherwise of property, was to press the process directed to be followed, to its issue.

Azimgurh.—Paragraph 3.—In the returns for 1852, the large amount of trials for bad livelihood, and imprisonments in default of security for good conduct, attracted notice, and elicited the caution of the Court against a too indiscriminate application of Regulation VIII. 1818, to cases of mere suspicion of evil character, without direct evidence to the fact of recent bad livelihood. The number imprisoned in the past year was also considerable; but the number released, either on giving security, or on expiry of their term of sentence, was still larger, and only 36 remained in Jail, in default of security at the end of the year. The Sessions Judge revised no cases of this description, his statement, in that particular, being blank. It is expected he should exercise the power of revision to the extent provided by the Regulation.

Benares.—Paragraph 4.—It may, further, the Court think, be open to some question whether the exceedingly rapid despatch of work, devoted by the diary of attendance of witnesses, is indicative so much of a healthy and regular, as of a defective and unsound system. The marginal note of the number of witnesses dismissed, within one day in four Courts, appears, taken with the fact that, out of a total of 12,874 witnesses examined, only 156 were detained beyond one day, to warrant the suspicion that the work is precipitated without needful attention to its completeness, and that such forced acceleration of business may, not improbably, be one of the causes productive of the unfavorable issue of the cases revised by the superior local Court. This is a result obviously never contemplated by the object of introducing a regular and punctual method of despatching work, and should be guarded against by the District Officers.

Magistrate, ...	2,587
Joint Magistrate, ...	3,327
Assistant, ...	3,191
Deputy Magistrate, ...	3,279

Mooradabad.—Paragraph 5.—Both in this and in the Agra District, a practice was found to exist of the Magistrates keeping a record termed, a Register or List of "Forgers," not compiled from the judicial results of trials in which parties had been convicted, but prepared on the authority of general rumour, and other private sources of information. The Court thought such a record objectionable and unwarranted by any law.

APPENDIX.

Extract, paragraph 11, of a letter, No. 56, dated 25*th April* 1855, from the Sessions Judge of Meerut recorded on the Administration of Criminal Justice for Zillah Meerut, for the year 1854.

There is generally great confusion in entering the names of witnesses under the several headings in the Calendar, and a great number of witnesses are entered and summoned apparently, merely because they have given evidence in the case before the Magistrate without any care being taken to determine whether their evidence is of any value or not. I consider it an important part of a Committing Officer's duty to weigh and select the evidence which is really of importance, and there would be no difficulty in doing this, when he draws up his final proceeding committing the case. If this were always done, and the names of the witnesses, who were required to appear at the Sessions, detailed by the Magistrate at the end of his final proceeding, and these witnesses duly entered in the Calendar, much time would be saved in the Sessions Court, and there would be a saving of some expense to Government. Circular Order No. 111, of the Sudder Nizamut Adawlut, Lower Provinces, dated 31st August 1853, might, with advantage, be extended to these Provinces.

Extract, paragraph 5, of the Court's Resolution on the Criminal Administration of Meerut, for the year 1854.

The Court fully concur with the Sessions Judge in his remarks on the duty of a Committing Officer to sift and weigh the evidence for the prosecution, in order that that only which is essential to the conviction of the prisoner may be laid before the Sessions Court. The practice of inserting in the Calendar all the witnesses, whose evidence has been taken before the Magistrate, entails an unnecessary degree of labor on the Sessions Judge, and is, at the same time, harassing to the parties themselves.

Extract, paragraph 11, of a letter No. 55, dated 25*th April* 1855, from the Sessions Judge of Meerut, recorded on the Administration of Criminal Justice for Zillah Meerut, for the year 1854.

I beg to bring to the notice of the Court the 5th paragraph of Mr. Wylly's letter, in which he complains that his endeavors, to check crime, have been, in a great measure, frustrated by release on appeal of parties imprisoned on charges of "bad livelihood" on failure to file security. On reference to the Statement No. 3, General Statement, it appears, that only nine persons have been released during the year 1854, and against these persons there was no legal proof. A charge of budmashee is one very easily made, but mere suspicion, or even repute without proof of some overt act is not a sufficient ground for requiring security,—and my experience teaches that charges of budmashee are too frequently made from malice, and that it is not an unusual circumstance to bring a charge of budmashee against an untractable hereditary cultivator, or one of the "banded brotherhood," who may make himself obnoxious by sticking up too firmly for his rights.

Extract from Court's Resolution, recorded on the Administration of Criminal Justice of Zillah Meerut, for the year 1854.

Paragraph 6.—Mr. Blunt's observations, in his report on the Meerut District, regarding the practice of apprehending parties on a charge of "bad livelihood," and demanding security from them, meet with the approval of the Court. The Penal Laws in this particular are liable to be abused by malicious persons and native police officers, and this evil can only be counteracted by the exercise of a wise discretion on the part of Magisterial Officers in rejecting charges of this nature, which have their foundation in malice alone, and in enforcing the legal penalty only where there is proof of recent circumstances warranting the imputation of a dishonest livelihood.

Extract from Court's Resolution, recorded on the Administration of Criminal Justice for Zillah Azimgurh, for the year 1854.

Paragraph 4.—During the past year, the existence of the offence of poisoning cattle on a systematic scale for the sake of their hides has been brought to light by the exertions of the local authorities, and the extent, to which it prevailed, may be conjectured from the number of persons charged with it, viz. 790, of whom 619 were convicted, 45 committed, and 121 acquitted. The steps taken with laudable spirit and energy by the Officiating Magistrate (Mr. Campbell) for its suppression were not all in strict conformity with the law. That Officer, considering the offence to be of the nature of theft by administering poison, issued general directions to his Police Officers to institute enquiries into cases of cattle poisoning, whether with, or without, complaint, and to apprehend the guilty parties. This mode of procedure has been pronounced illegal by this, in concurrence with the Presidency Court; as the offence of cattle-poisoning for the sake of their hides, not being included in what are called "heinous offences" in the Regulations, is, on that account, not within the competence of the Police primarily. But as the crime is of a very grave nature, and extremely hurtful to the interests of the community, the Court were of opinion that the enactment of a law, enabling the Police to take cognizance of it, and empowering the Magistrate to award a punishment proportionate to the heinousness of the offence, would be desirable, and with this view they have submitted a draft of an Act to the above purport for the consideration of Government.

Extract from Court's Resolution, recorded on the Administration of Criminal Justice for Zillah Saharunpore, for the year 1854, part of paragraph 2.

The Court observe in the Statement of the latter District the unusual number of 134 persons tried for gambling, of whom 121 were convicted, and six only acquitted. This attracted the attention of the Court, on inspection of the Criminal Statements for November last, and, from the correspondence that ensued thereupon, it appeared that the 121 persons were all concerned in one case of gambling, and fined by the Magistrate, but released on appeal by the Sessions Judge owing to the particular time when the gambling occurred, viz. the Dewalee festival. The Court informed the Sessions Judge that they could not concur in his view "that the criminality of gambling, regarded as a punishable offence, is affected by the season at which it occurs, as such a doctrine would have the objectionable and anomalous effect of declaring that to be an offence at one time which was not so esteemed at another."

Extract from Court's Resolution, recorded on the Administration of Criminal Justice for Zillah Kumaon, for the year 1854, part of paragraph 3.

In connection with the subject, it may here be noticed, that the Senior Assistant of Kumaon was informed by the Court that the abduction of young females without or against the consent of their parents was an offence cognizable under Section 2, Regulation VII. of 1819, but otherwise the Magistrate cannot* of his own motion, interfere in matters of this nature, if no complaint is made, the offence being merely one contra bonos mores.

* As the law stands.
